Southrop Church of England Primary School is fully committed to safeguarding the welfare of all children and young people. It recognises its responsibility to take all reasonable steps to promote safe practice and to protect children from harm, abuse and exploitation.

Paid staff and volunteers will endeavour to work together to encourage the development of an ethos which embraces difference and diversity and respects the rights of children, young people and adults.

Southrop Church of England Primary School will:

- ensure that all adults understand their legal and moral obligations to protect children and young people from harm, abuse and exploitation;
- develop best practice in relation to the recruitment of all workers;
- ensure that all adults understand their responsibility to work to the standards and procedures detailed in the organisation's Code of Conduct and the Child Protection Procedures;
- ensure that all adults understand their obligations to report care or protection concerns about a child/young person, or another adult's conduct towards a child/young person, to the organisation's designated persons for child protection (Headteacher and Chair of Governors);
- ensure that all procedures relating to the conduct of adults are implemented in a consistent and equitable manner;
- ensure that the designated persons understand his/her responsibility to refer any child protection concerns to the statutory child protection agencies (The Gloucestershire Safeguarding Children Board)
- provide opportunities for all adults to develop their skills and knowledge particularly in relation to the care and protection of children and young people;
- ensure that children and young people are enabled to express their ideas and views on a wide range of issues and will have access to the organisation's Complaints Procedure and Confidentiality Policy;
- ensure that parents/carers are encouraged to be involved in the work of the organisation and, when requested, have access to all guidelines and procedures;
- endeavour to keep up-to-date with national developments relating to the care and protection of children and young people.
