Together We Can Fly

School was truly buzzing on the 8th March, when everyone happily gave up on-line learning and returned to school. We welcomed the children back with a celebration breakfast. During the first week we enjoyed lots of team building and collaborative work, including artwork, and finished off with everyone coming dressed as their favourite book character to celebrate World Book Day. This included the staff dressed as a range of Beatrix Potter characters, from Jeremy Fisher to Mr McGregor. Staff and pupils are very grateful to be together learning face-to-face and are all getting back into our familiar routines. We are also very grateful to the Ernest Cook Trust, whose donation of £1000 helped us ensure all pupils could access the on-line lessons from home during lockdown.

Our value this term is Perseverance, something we really value at Southrop School. We regular celebrate mistakes that we make as FAILs (First Attempt At Learning) and can often be heard exclaiming "I can't do it...yet!". Our topic across the school is We Are Britain, a celebration of the countries, history and diversity which formed our nation.
